OverviewWe are assisting our guys with a stable place to live that will take them out of active addiction, away from the gangs and help them to stay out of jails/prisons. We give them stability, responsibility, and structure in a loving family atmosphere so they can work towards being a positive member of society. We have been operating since September 2011, and have been housing adult men who have been afflicted by drugs and alcohol giving them a chance to get clean and have stability in their livesAddressBakersfield Links To Change Recovery House is located in 1805 S. M street, Bakersfield, CA, 93304
