OverviewI will not rush through an Inspection and will never write a report on site. The quickie Inspections and on-site reports are only a convenience for the Inspector and Realtor. In my opinion, they do nothing for the buyer, creates a greater risk for error, and takes away valuable time from you, the buyer. Every Buyer wants and expects a thorough Inspection, by a competent Inspector. You're invited to walk with me through the inspection and learn how your house works. I will show you how certain
