Overview Breakout DJ Services is more than just a guy playing songs and making announcements; DJ Breakout is a true party enabler. A party enabler is someone who is engaging his audience through both verbal and non-verbal expression. He is constantly reacting to his dance floor, reading the room, and playing the right song at the right time. This allows him to know when to pump up the crowd with an energetic vocalization as well as to play just what it takes to let the party happen.
