OverviewCody Bradley Masonry is a local masonry contractor that specializes in anything from tuck pointing chimneys to installing every type of masonry exterior on residential and commercial buildings. We are fully insured and licensed. The Bradley family has been in the masonry trade for over 65 years. I myself am a third generation mason and have been bricklaying since I was 12 years old before that I was laboring for my father's company. But my company is one of the few left that still takes pride

AddressCody Bradley Masonry is located in 612 Washington Street, Edgerton, WI, 53534
