OverviewI started tattooing when I was nineteen and in the past nine years have been inspired and influenced primarily by the traditional style of tattooing. In my early years, after my apprenticeship, I had the good fortune to work under Danise Wolfe at Lucky 7 Tattoo Studio in Illinois. After leaving Lucky 7 I moved to California where I met Brian Everett at a tattoo convention in Reno. Again good fortune found me and I landed a job working with Everett at Route 66 in Albuquerque, New Mexico.
