OverviewHello my name is Leonard Pjetri the owner of K. Rose Custom. I have been painting for over ten years. After gaining an education in painting and drywall through District 1M painters and allied trades Apprentice Program, I have decided to venture off on my own. I care for each home as if it was my own. I promise you will be highly satisfied with the results every time you hire my company. We will also beat the price of any licensed and insured competitor.I have worked on and ran high profile j
