Overview I am a highly skilled craftsman in the construction industry. Dedicated to customers and honest in my dealings with the public. I specialize in interior finishes and refurbishing. No job is too small. Drywall is one of my specialties along with mold removal, which I am trained and certified to treat and remove. Estimates are free and work is guaranteed. I will be happy to work with you on most any project.

Clean and timely with the job, Thank you for considering Logan HMS (handyman services)'
