Overview Make Your Dog Happy is dog training with a difference. What's different? I come to you! I provide dog training and behavior modification in your home where most problems begin. My proven method combines dog psychology so your dog/puppy understands right from the start what is asked of him/her, and is backed up with positive reinforcement to insure your dog/puppy retains the lesson. I have a five week (15 hour) course that includes obedience and behavior modification. With the five week course
