OverviewI have a new tanning lotion that I have invented. This lotion helps you to get the tan that you're trying to achieve. When using this tanning lotion it has you're skin feeling nice and smooth. I have been using this lotion for years and have recently made the formula even better to help to get you tan even faster. People that have used my lotion has noticed that they could go days without tanning; and then as soon as they begin to tan again their color has come right back from where they had
