Overview:: About us :: Outdora Kitchen's is a family owned and ran establishment. It was established in 2012. Although new to the area we have been designing and building Outdoor Kitchens in the Tampa area for the past eight years. We have also been in business in the United Kingdom for many years. We pride ourselves on our custom designs and we build our outdoor kitchens, fireplaces and fire pits on site to give that extra personal touch. We use only the most durable products to withstand the elemen
