OverviewLife is complicated. The real estate processes doesn't have to be too. I will be there from start to finish to handle all the details of your transaction. I take pride in my attention to detail and caring for the needs of my clients and would consider it a privilege to help you realize your real estate dreams. For nine years I have lived in both Escambia and Santa Rosa County. I am significantly involved in community, volunteering my time with the Santa Rosa County School District, Ronald McD
