OverviewNew Yorkers know the true meaning of Work Hard, Play Hard. Between a demanding career and caring for a family there is little time to focus on anything else, especially diet and health. But overtime, no matter how much you exercise, all those greasy fast breakfast foods, decadent business lunches and sugary vending machine snacks will not only affect your waistline but your quality of life -because who wants to play hard when they don't feel well? The NY Nutrition Group will help you find a p
